THE STAR OF RABBIE BURNS

There is a star whose beaming ray is shed on every clime;
It shines by night, it shines by day and ne'er grows dim wi' time It rose upon the banks of Ayr it shone on Doons clear stream A hundred years are gane and mair yet brighter grows its beam

REFRAIN:

Let kings and courtiers rise and fa'
This world has many turns but brightly beams abune them a'
the star of Rabbie Burns

Though he was but a ploughman lad and wore the hodden grey Auld Scotland's sweetest bard was bred a-neath a roof o' strae To sweep the strings of Scotia's lyre it needs nae classic lore It's mither wit and native fire that warms the bosom's core.
