*THE INVOCATION

THE STATEMENT OF FAITH

We confess and acknowledge one God alone, to whom alone
we must cleave, whom alone we must serve, and in whom alone
we put our trust. Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible, one in substance and yet distinct in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. By whom we confess and believe all things in heaven and earth, visible and invisible, to have been created, to be retained in their being, and to be ruled and guided by his inscrutable providence for such end as his eternal wisdom, goodness, and justice have appointed, and to the manifestation of his own glory.

From the Scots Confession, a Statement of Faith adopted by the Scottish Parliament in 1560 under leader John Knox.

THE POSTLUDE

A SCOTTISH BLESSING

"If after Kirk you bide a wee,
There's some wad like to speak to ye.
If after Kirk you rise and flee
We'll all seem cauld and stiff to ye.
The one that's in the seat with ye
Is stranger here than you, maybe.
All here have got their fears and cares,
And your soul into our prayers,
Be you our angel unawares."

AN INVITATION

All are invited to a Scottish Tea in Fellowship Hall immediately following the Service of Worship. There will be refreshments, music, and dancing by the Scottish dancers.

"What Strangers Are These?"
Old Scottish Carol arr. Purvis

TEXT

1. What strangers are these that wander through the town?
Hush, 'tis Joseph and weary Mary.
And what does he seek so hopeless and in vain?
He is seeking shelter for Mary.
For she is the blest and chosen of the Lord,
Who will bear to men a goodly King.
And who is this king of whom ye proudly sing?
Know ye not the Christ, Jesus the Saviour?
2. What wee bairn is this, that in a manger lies?
Hush, 'tis Jesus Christ, son of Mary.
Say, what fair maid is this whose joy is mixed with awe?
Oh, 'tis Mary, Holy Mother of Jesus.
Oh, these are the shepherds, and these the Magi Kings,
Who have brought him their gifts of gold and myrrh.
But why kneel they in homage here before a babe?
They adore their King, Jesus the Saviour.
3. Who are these that march from death to life?
These are they who love Jesus, the Christ Child.
And how do they triumph o'er the gates of hell?
Through the grace of him, Jesus, the Christ Child.
He is born to redeem the sons of God and man,
To bring peace, joy, love and brotherhood.
Oh, where shall I find him, where shall I seek?
He is here and now, Jesus, your Saviour.
