

THE SCOTTISH ST. ANDREW SOCIETY OF GREATER ST. LOUIS

November 9, 1984

Dear Friends:

It was a smaller group who heard from Wilma and Carl Wienold tell of their travels in China and Japan on Monday, 29th October last. Their trips have been made through the auspices of the International Friendship Force. It was astounding to hear of the low rate of literacy in China and the high rate (98%) in Japan!

We hope no one showed up on the regular night (Monday, 10/22), when the Salem church had need of the hall. It is most important that you read your letter and post your calendar!

The next event, on November 17, is our St. Andrew's Day dinner/dance. Tickets are going like hotcakes, so get your reservations in to Betty McGregor. The Top of the Sevens Restaurant is presenting a fine dinner, as follows:

- Minestrone Soup with Saltines
- Tossed Salad with Croutons
and 7777 Dressing
- Sliced Roast Top Sirloin of Beef Bordelaise
with Horseradish
- Oven Roast Potatoes
- Hot Rolls and Butter
- Peas and Carrots
- Strawberry Ice Cream Pie with Strawberry Sauce
- Coffee, Tea, or Milk
- (Wine may be purchased during the meal in carafes)

Martin Daugherty and the Pipe Band with Mary Thompson with her dancers will be there. Dance music will be by the Doug Flagg "Collage" band.
